

6516209405.txt

XM radio provides a service for a fee that is not available to me at any price from the conventional broadcast media. Do not let their shortfalls become the best that we have. Leave XM alone and let them do their thing, it is a subscription service and I pay for what I get. I strongly oppose limitations on satellite radio.